

Reinforced Non-Resorbable Membranes Vertical and Horizontal Ridge Augmentations

ON-DEMAND WEBCAST

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

Today regenerative surgical techniques are well-known and well documented, but sometimes are subject to complications that leave serious concerns from the outcome of the surgical procedure. In particular, for challenging hard tissue defects which can be reconstructed with titanium-reinforced non-resorbable membranes, soft tissue management is, in fact, one of the key element for undisturbed healing. During this webinar Dr. Ronda will share his knowledge about vertical and horizontal defect regeneration using titanium-reinforced non-resorbable membranes and bone graft particulates. Dr. Ronda will present clinical cases which demonstrate the feasibility and predictability of this procedure.

Marco Ronda, DDS*

Dr. Ronda graduated in medicine in 1990 from the University of Verona and has a private dentistry practice in Genoa. In 2011 the International Journal of Periodontics & Restorative Dentistry published his study reporting a new surgical technique of lingual flap management appropriate in all cases of increase in bone volume; in the same magazine in 2014, a new clinical study on the management of the buccal flap titled "A novel approach for the coronal advancement of the buccal flap" has been published. From 2014 to date he periodically provides a semester of practical training courses in implantology and bone regeneration techniques at his private practice. He is an active member of the IAO (Italian Academy of Osseointegration) and co-founder of the Piezosurgery Academy.
